As an expert evaluator, I will provide an in-depth exploration of Untouchable, analyzing its thematic richness, narrative style, historical context, and enduring relevance.

Introduction to Mulk Raj Anand and the Significance of Untouchable

Mulk Raj Anand (1905-2004) was a pioneering figure in Indian English literature, renowned for his focus on social issues and marginalized groups. His works, including Coolie, Two Leaves and a Bud, and Untouchable, are celebrated for their vivid realism, lyrical prose, and compassionate tone.

Untouchable, published in 1935, is often regarded as Anand's most impactful work. It narrates a day in the life of Bakha, a young Dalit (untouchable) sweeper, highlighting the pervasive caste discrimination and social injustice prevalent in Indian society. The novella's significance lies not only in its literary excellence but also in its role as a social document that challenges deeply entrenched prejudices.

Structural and Stylistic Analysis of Untouchable

Anand employs a third-person limited narrative, primarily focusing on Bakha's perspective. This approach allows readers to intimately experience Bakha's thoughts, feelings, and frustrations, fostering empathy and understanding.

The prose style is straightforward yet evocative, blending simple language with powerful imagery. Anand's use of colloquial expressions and authentic dialogue enhances realism, making the characters' voices authentic and relatable.

Key stylistic features include:

- Inner Monologue: The novella captures Bakha's internal conflicts, aspirations, and feelings of humiliation.

Narrative Structure

The novella unfolds over a single day, a technique that intensifies the focus on Bakha's daily struggles. This tight timeline emphasizes the routine nature of oppression and societal neglect.

The story is segmented into various episodes—Bakha's interactions with family members, encounters with higher castes, and moments of personal reflection. This episodic structure underscores the cyclical nature of caste-based discrimination.

Anand portrays caste discrimination not merely as social injustice but as a profound moral failing of society, emphasizing its destructive impact on individuals' dignity.
